GO-WORD is God, Jesus (20)

Israel and Judah were conquered by Babylon and many of the people were taken as slaves. They chose the best of the young men to be slaves from Israel and work for King Nebuchadnezzar in Babylon. They did not worship the Gods of Babylon but still prayed to the true God of Israel. The king built a tall golden statue of himself and commanded all to bow down and worship it. Three men stood out for refusing to bow down and worship the gold statue. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were thrown into a blazing furnace because they refused to worship the gold statue set up by the king.

The Jewish people were in captivity for 70 years and during that time Babylon was conquered by Persia with a new king. King Darius took over and decreed that no one could pray to any God but only pray to him. Daniel continued to pray to God just as he always did, even though the king decreed he could no longer pray to his God. King Darius liked Daniel but because he made a law that people would only worship him. The king threw Daniel into the lions' den because he continued to pray to God. God protected Daniel and shut the lions' mouths and they did not eat Daniel or cause him any harm.

Daniel lived to be an old man and the city of Babylon was conquered again by King Belshazzar. King Belshazzar had many parties to celebrate himself and during one party an invisible hand began to write on a wall of fresh plaster in words the king did not understand. The invisible hand writings scared the king and he called for Daniel to come and tell him what the words meant. Daniel came to the drunken party and told Belshazzar the meaning of the handwriting on the wall was his kingdom was about to be conquered by another king. That night King Belshazzar's kingdom was conquered.

The book of Jonah tells the story about Jonah who was swallowed by a great fish when he ran away from doing God's will. After surviving being swallowed by a fish, Jonah went and preached to the people of Nineveh and the people repented and God forgave them. Jonah's story shows if we follow God's command something good will come from it.

Micah is a minor prophet in the Old Testament who foretold that Jesus the Messiah would be born in Bethlehem. According to another minor prophet Zechariah, Jesus' feet will stand on the Mount of Olives when He returns to the earth.

The gospels of Matthew and Luke tell us about Jesus' birth and that the angel Gabriel told Mary she would be the mother of the Messiah. Mary was the virgin engaged to be married to Joseph, whom an angel also appeared to and told him not to be afraid but to take Mary as his wife. Like Micah foretold that Jesus was to be born in Bethlehem and the first persons to see and worship Jesus were the shepherds.

Later, wise men came seeking Jesus asking: Matthew 2:2 "Where is the newborn king of the Jews?" When they found Jesus they presented gifts for worship of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. After the wise men visited Mary and Joseph moved to Nazareth where Jesus grew up.

When Jesus got older and before he started teaching, God sent John the Baptist to prepare the way by teaching repentance through baptism.

GO-WORD is Spirit(15)

The Holy Spirit is the third person of the trinity of God. The Holy Spirit is mentioned in the story of creation as hovering over the surface of the waters. In the gospel of John chapter sixteen it describes the Holy Spirit in many ways. In verse eight the Holy Spirit does three things it convicts the world of its sin, and God's righteousness, and of the coming judgement.

The passage continues with Jesus telling us why the Holy Spirit convicts the world of sin, because the world failed to believe on Jesus. The conviction of sin by the Holy Spirit is important to our salvation to help us change from a repentant sinner into a new person. Once we are saved the Holy Spirit guides Christians into truth. Before Jesus resurrection the Holy Spirit just inspired men, but after the resurrection the Holy Spirit dwells in every Christian. Through believing in Jesus, we are adopted as sons of God and Paul in Ephesians tells us the Holy Spirit is our inheritance as promised long ago. The Holy Spirit also dwells in the heart of every Christian when we believe in Jesus. The continuing spiritual evidences of a Spirit filled life are shown through four things:

- Joy and contentment.
- Victory over sin.
- Ability to share the gospel.
- Desire to know God and His Word.

One of the minor prophets Zechariah tells us: "It is not by force nor by strength, but by my Spirit, says the Lord." Zechariah 4:6

Just before Jesus ascends into heaven, Jesus tells his disciples it is important that he go away so the Holy Spirit might come. Ten days after his ascension on the day of Pentecost a Jewish holiday, God first baptizes believers in the Holy Spirit.
